It is hereby stipulated and agreed to between the United States of America through Michelle Rodriguez, Assistant U.S. Attorney, and defendant, MARIO ALFREDO GALINDO, Jr. by and through his counsel, Matthew M. Scoble, Assistant Federal Defender, that the 24 month sentence imposed on the Defendant by this court has been fully served. The parties arrive at this conclusion based on the time the Defendant has actually served in custody, and under the doctrine of credit for time at liberty under Clark v. Floyd, 80 F. 3d 371 (9th Cir. 1996).

ORDER

The Court having read the Defendant's motion for release, having heard argument from the parties, and adopting the parties' stipulation, hereby finds that the 24 month sentence imposed on the Defendant by this court has been fully served. The court makes this finding considering time the Defendant has actually served in custody, and under the doctrine of credit for time at liberty under Clark v. Floyd, 80 F. 3d 371 (9th Cir. 1996).

Therefore, the Court orders the US Marshals and the Bureau of Prisons to release the Defendant, forthwith.

Dated: January 23, 2012

WILLIAM B. SHUBB
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
